Nothing is more discouraging than to have an unhealthy sore or ulcer resist one treatment after another, sometimes scabbing over and apparently getting well, then returning with renewed energy and becoming worse than before. Sores and ulcers are not due to outside causes; if they were, salves, plasters, lotions, etc., would cure them. They are kept up by a diseased and polluted condition of the blood brought on by absorption of refuse and waste matters of the body into this vital fluid. These accoumulations find their way into the blood, usually because of an inactive and sluggish condition of the system. Nature intends that they shall be carried off through the usual channels of waste, but the different members failing to perform their duties properly leave the matter to sour and ferment. The blood then, in its effort to keep the system healthy, bsorbs these poisons and at the first bruise, cut or wound the sore is ormed, and the constant drainage of foul matter through it keeps the blace open and irritated so it cannot heal. Another cause for old sores and ulcers is the polluting or weakening of the blood from the remains of some constitutional trouble or the effects of a long spell of sickness. S. S. Ready Now.

The Reiman Playerpiano at $475 The Heller Playerpiano at $550

THE FIRST SMALL GROUP of these new instruments are now ready in the Piano Store. How great the interest aroused by our announcement of them three weeks ago is best evidenced by the fact that we have orders for more instruments than we are at present able to supply—orders which were placed before there was even opportunity for our patrons to inspect a sample; orders which were placed simply on the strength of our statement that we had combined a pianoplayer in the same case with the splendid Heller and Reiman Pianos

The advent of these two Playerpianos marks a new step ahead in the public service of the Loeser Store. It carries our policy of the elimination of the "piano agency" still farther than before. It develops two instruments which in artistic merit are on a very high plane of excellence and which if the average standard of prices asked for Playerpianos is taken as a standard.

The Heiler and the Reiman Playerpianos are to a large degree a. Loeser oduction. How tine the Heller and Keiman Planos are, some hundreds of Brooklyn people who have bought them here are ready to testify. And inside the cases of these time Pianos we have placed a Piano Player which in sensitiveness, in flexibility and delicacy of mechanism, in durability, and withat, in ns possibilities of ARTISTIC PIANO PLAYING, is without a serious rival.

The Heller and the Reiman Playerpianos are the result of full four years of study and experiment by the people perhaps the best qualified through long experience to produce a perfect Pianoplayer. To realize the excellence of these instruments it is only necessary to compare the ease of their manipulation and he beauty of results achieved with the best that can be done in any other way. With a Reiman or a Heller Playerpiano the world of music is at your ommand. The instrument may be played like any ordinary Piano-and is every detail of its appearance simply a handsome Piano.

By opening a panel, dropping the front and letting down the pedals, it is eady to be played by the music roll—and the player mechanism will prove ie simplest and most sensitive that you have ever tried.

Important, almost, as the high character of these instruments, is the mater of price. There is no middleman's profit to pay on these Playerpianos. We are directly responsible for their manufacture. And we find that we can sell them at what we consider a fair profit and on the prices that you will pay for other Playerpianos that even approach these in excellence.

This matter of price is one that is well worth investigation and careful comparison. And if the Reiman and Heller Playerpiano had none of the points of superiority which they do have they would still be the best instruments to uy, because of the very much lower prices than other instruments cost. Terms of payment will be made practically to suit your convenience.

If you have an old Piano or a "dead" Piano which is seldom played—we will ake it in part payment for one of these new instruments at a fair valuation and the balance may be paid monthly or quarterly, if you do not care to eav cash. The simple interest charge is no more than you would pay to our bankers for the use of the money while you are completing ownership of
